

Limited-Edition Artisanal Furnishings

Pieter VanTuyt

Passion For Beautiful Objects

Pieter VanTuyl lives where the structures and patterns of nature meet the geometric purity of interior architecture. Contrast, juxtaposition, and poetry...harmonized, but not blended. Traditional artisanal handwork and native materials in a dialogue with new industry, giving voice to the aesthetic of sustainability. An intensity of material and craft, refined. Rare objects of expression and desire; modern and disciplined, organic and ornamented.

Time and geography write their histories in the wood, stone, and slate used in our products; a hallmark that makes each piece unique. Pieter VanTuyl Signature Pieces are rarer still, made one at a time, in limited production (usually 100 pieces). Exclusivity is assured, since once the edition is complete, we end production of that piece.

While each Pieter VanTuyl product has its own story to share, you'll appreciate the passion for materials, hand work, sustainability, and beauty that flows through our entire collection. Select, sustainably-harvested and reclaimed woods, generations-old stone, impeccable hand joinery, traditional and experimental shaping and filling methods, hand-rubbed finishes of botanical tung oil. The demanding eye and honest touch of craftsmen and designers, ensuring that each piece deserves its hand signature, furthering a heritage of design and craft that originated more than 400 years ago in Eastern Europe.
